BTC 8-Hour Market Report

Sunday 25 Oct 2026, 07:51 Malaysia time (23:51 UTC Sat 24 Oct)

BTC ~ $80,400

Coinbase/CoinGlass; ~-1.0% 24h, ~-2% on week

Quick view	Bias: Neutral-bearish; below 50-day line, longs flushed	Next 24h range: $79,000 - $81,800	Key floor: $79,000-79,300 (24h low / Oct 30 max pain area)	Big event: FOMC 29 Oct 02:00 MYT; $12.2B expiry 30 Oct 4pm MYT

1. Options - next 24 hours and upcoming expiries

- Next expiry: Sun 25 Oct, 4:00pm MYT (Deribit daily 25OCT26). A Sunday daily is normally small; no strike-level data could be read this run.
- How big: too small to move price on its own. The expiry that matters is Fri 30 Oct, 4:00pm MYT (weekly + October monthly): ~149,700 BTC, ~$12.2B notional, ~35% of all Deribit BTC options OI.
- This week: FOMC decision lands two days before the 30 Oct expiry, so dealer hedging and macro risk overlap mid-to-late week.

Expiry	Largest position seen	Size	Meaning
25 Oct (daily)	Not readable this run	n/a	Small Sunday daily; little pinning effect expected
30 Oct - largest call	$95,000 call	25,570 BTC (~$2.06B)	Far out of the money (+18%); a ceiling marker, not near-term magnet
30 Oct - largest put	$70,000 put	4,142 BTC (~$333M)	Put side thin; $72k-75k puts could add hedging pressure if $79k breaks

How options affect the market now

- Today's daily expiry is a non-event: Sunday dailies carry little OI, so expect no meaningful pin at 4pm MYT.
- Pull toward max pain: the 30 Oct max pain sits at $78k-79k, just 2-3% below spot. As expiry nears, option sellers benefit from price drifting there; this is a mild gravity, not a forecast.
- Call-heavy book (P/C ~0.52): the big calls ($90k-$100k) are far out of the money and decaying fast; holders may roll or abandon them, which removes upside fuel rather than adding it.
- Downside acceleration: put OI is thin, but below $79k the $75k/$72k puts gain delta and dealers short those puts would sell futures to hedge, which can speed a drop toward $76-77k.

- Volatility: options price roughly 32% annualised (about 1.7%, or ~$1,350, a day). Realised vol has been lower; FOMC plus the $12B expiry could release vol later in the week.
- After 30 Oct: about a third of OI rolls off; with only ~$2B in November, pinning forces weaken and price is freer to trend on macro.

Data note: the Deribit API could not be reached this run, so strike data comes from published reports (CryptoTicker 24 Oct, TokenPost 24 Oct). Figures are 'largest seen' and may have shifted; USD sizes use ~$80.4k. No daily-expiry or DVOL feed was readable.

2. Price action and key levels

- BTC dipped below $80,000 on Sat 24 Oct (low ~$79,263) before recovering to ~$80,300-80,700; latest prints near $80,400.
- Price broke below its 50-day average (~$81,300-81,800) for the first time in 66 days; that line is now resistance.
- The week's rebound peaked at ~$84,300-84,900 on 21 Oct and was rejected; series of lower highs since.
- Sat liquidations were 83-93% longs, a sign leverage was flushed - this lowers the risk of another forced-selling cascade near term.
- The weekly candle closes at 8:00am MYT today; analysts flag a close below $83k as bearish for the rest of 2026.

Type	Level	Why it matters
Resistance 2	$84,300-84,900	21 Oct rejection high; big Binance ask block near $86.5-87.5k beyond
Resistance 1	$81,400-81,900	24h high and 50-day average - first test for any bounce
Pivot	$80,000	Psychological level; average cost basis of corporate holders (Glassnode)
Support	$79,000-79,300	24h low, liquidation cluster ~$79.6k, Oct 30 max pain area
Deep risk	$76,700-77,600	True market mean ~$77.6k; below it $75k/$72k put hedging can accelerate

3. Derivatives, flows and sentiment

Metric	Latest	Read
Futures open interest	~$54.3B (CoinGlass)	Still large; total crypto OI fell 1.6% in 24h - deleveraging
Funding rate	~0.005-0.008% / 8h	Neutral-positive; no extreme crowding either way
Liquidations (24h)	$821M market; BTC $240M (93% longs)	Long flush on the dip below $80k
Spot BTC ETF flows	22 Oct -$635M; 23 Oct -$138M	Outflows after a >$1B inflow streak; largest daily outflow since June
Options implied vol	~32% (Oct 30 expiry); DVOL ~38 on 20 Oct	Implies ~1.7-2.0% daily move; vol near 2026 lows
Fear & Greed	46 (Neutral)	Down from 51 a week ago

4. News and macro

- Fed: FOMC meets 27-28 Oct (Chair Warsh). The Fed hiked to 3.75-4.00% in September; markets price ~7% odds of a hike now and ~73% for December. Hawkish tone is the main macro risk.
- Oil and stocks: Brent near six-month highs (~$100-117) after Houthi attacks on Saudi Arabia, feeding inflation fears; Nasdaq fell 2.6% on 22 Oct on AI-spending worries.
- Flows: spot BTC ETFs saw ~$774M of outflows across 22-23 Oct after a strong inflow run.
- Positioning: Arthur Hayes said his family office (Maelstrom) closed its directional book and took profits.
- Security: Electrum urged users to update to 4.8.3 for a critical fix; Initia chain paused after a ~$2.7M exploit.

5. Summary and prediction

BTC is pinned near $80k after losing its 50-day average, with ETF outflows, high oil and a hawkish-leaning Fed weighing on it. The long-liquidation flush on Saturday cleaned out some leverage, and weekend liquidity is thin, so the next 24 hours most likely chop between $79k and $81.8k. Options add a mild pull toward $78-79k (30 Oct max pain) and downside speed if $79k gives way, but today's 4pm daily expiry is too small to matter. The real tests come later in the week: FOMC (29 Oct, 2am MYT) and the $12.2B expiry (30 Oct). 24h call: range-bound $79,000-81,800 with a slight downside lean; a clean break of $79k opens $77.5k.

Scenario	Chance	Range	Trigger
Base: chop	55%	$79,000 - $81,800	Thin weekend trade; holds $79k, fails under 50-day line
Bullish: reclaim	20%	$81,800 - $83,500	Hourly close above $81.9k with ETF/Asia bid; shorts squeezed
Bearish: breakdown	25%	$77,500 - $79,300	Close below $79k; put hedging and fresh long liquidations

- Bull signal: 4-hour close above $81,900 (50-day line) - opens $83.5-84.3k.
- Bear signal: 4-hour close below $79,000 with rising funding or OI - targets $77.6k then $76.7k.
- Next report: 3:50pm MYT, Sun 25 Oct
