BTC ~ $83,600

CoinDesk 22:15 MYT: +1.3% 24h; about -3% on the week

Quick view	Bias: Neutral, two-way risk into CPI	Next 24h range: $81,000 - $85,500 (base $82,000 - $84,500)	Key floor: $81,000, then $80,000 put wall	Big event: US CPI Wed 14 Oct 8:30pm MYT

1. Options - next 24 hours and upcoming expiries

- Next expiry: Deribit daily, Wed 14 Oct 4:00pm MYT (08:00 UTC). Dailies are small; no published size was found this run, and it settles about 4.5 hours before CPI, so it should not steer the CPI move.
- The expiry that matters this week: weekly Fri 16 Oct 4:00pm MYT, about 15,500 BTC (~$1.29B), put-heavy (P/C ~1.43-1.50), max pain $83,000 - right at spot.
- The big one: monthly Fri 30 Oct 4:00pm MYT, ~$11.7B notional, call-heavy (P/C 0.48), max pain $78,000, giant $95k call stack.

Expiry	Largest position seen	Size	Meaning
14 Oct daily (4pm MYT)	Not available this run	n/a	Small daily book; low pinning power ahead of CPI
16 Oct weekly - put	$80,000 Put	2,262 BTC (~$189M)	Main downside hedge; $76k-$80k puts total ~$451M
16 Oct weekly - calls	$85k / $87k / $90k Calls	~$219M combined	Upside is thin; a break above $85k meets little call supply

How options affect the market now

- Pin near $83k this week: the weekly max pain ($83,000) sits on spot, so dealer hedging tends to dampen moves back toward $82k-$84k once the CPI shock fades.
- $80,000 is the options floor - and the trap door: heavy weekly put interest at $76k-$80k means dealers short those puts buy dips toward them at first, but a clean break under $80k forces them to sell futures, which can speed the fall toward $78k.
- Upside is light near term: only ~$219M of weekly calls at $85k-$90k. If CPI is soft and $84.5k breaks, little dealer selling stands in the way until the large monthly calls far above.
- Sentiment split: weekly P/C ~1.45 shows short-term hedging demand; the monthly P/C 0.48 shows longer-dated bullish bets ($95k/$100k) that are far out of the money and need a big rally to matter.
- Volatility is cheap for a CPI week: 7-day IV ~32% (Laevitas, 12 Oct), implying about 1.7% a day (~$1,400). 7-day 25-delta skew flipped to -2.4 (puts bid). A surprise CPI can break that range; after Friday's expiry the pin fades and realised vol often picks up.

- Monthly max pain $78,000 is well below spot - a slow gravitational pull later in the month if rallies fail, not a 24h factor.

Data note: the Deribit public API (index, DVOL and option book) could not be reached this run, so option figures are the largest positions published by CryptoSlate/Laevitas, CryptoTicker and CryptoTimes (10-12 Oct snapshots); treat them as 'largest seen', not a full book. USD sizes = OI x ~$83,600.

2. Price action and key levels

- BTC fell from ~$84,200 to a low near $80,950-$81,400 on Monday night (12 Oct) as $771M of positions were liquidated (89% longs), then recovered above $83,000 on Tuesday.
- Latest: $83,587 at 22:15 MYT (CoinDesk), +1.3% in 24h; Kraken 24h range $80,951-$84,053. Still about -3% on the week and ~34% below the $126,080 all-time high.
- BTC is outperforming altcoins (ETH, SOL, XRP all down in 24h); BTC dominance ~58.2%.
- Two-week range $80,300-$87,200 is intact; price sits in the middle, just under the $84,000-$84,500 ceiling.

Type	Level	Why it matters
Resistance 2	$86,500 - $87,200	4-5 Oct supply and 2 Oct high; top of the two-week range
Resistance 1	$84,000 - $84,500	Daily highs 12-13 Oct and estimated average ETF holder cost (~$84,340)
Pivot	$83,000	Weekly max pain; price magnet into Friday 4pm MYT
Support 1	$81,000 - $81,300	Held on 8 and 13 Oct; Monday flush low
Support 2	$80,000 - $80,300	Weekly put wall and 8 Oct low; break may trigger dealer selling
Deep risk	$77,200 - $78,000	Monthly max pain and 50-week moving average

3. Derivatives, flows and sentiment

Metric	Latest	Read
Futures OI (CoinGlass)	~$52.7B (from $54.5B)	Leverage flushed on Monday; less fuel for another long squeeze
Funding (OI-weighted)	~0.003% / 8h (Glassnode)	Near neutral; no crowded longs
Liquidations 24h (12-13 Oct)	$771M, longs $686M	Long wipe-out; cleaner positioning now
Spot BTC ETF flows	-$65.4M Mon (all IBIT); ~-$680M last week	First weekly outflow since early Sep; largest single day -$485M (7 Oct)
7-day implied vol	~32% (Laevitas, 12 Oct)	~1.7% daily move; CPI could exceed it
Fear & Greed	56-57 (neutral)	Cooled from ~80 in early October
Rates	US 10y ~5.3-5.37%	Highest since 2002; main headwind for risk assets

4. News and macro

- CPI is the event: September US CPI on Wed 14 Oct, 8:30pm MYT. Consensus headline ~3.7% y/y (from 3.4%), core 2.5% y/y, core m/m 0.2%. A 0.3%+ core print revives an October Fed hike (~20% priced) and risks $80k; 0.2% or lower supports a relief rally.
- Fed: markets price ~80% hold at the 27-28 Oct FOMC and roughly 70-85% odds of a December hike. Fed Chair Warsh speaks Fri 16 Oct at the IMF meetings in Bangkok.
- Flows: spot BTC ETFs saw ~$680M of outflows last week and -$65M on Monday; Strategy still bought 250 BTC (holdings 848,250 BTC).
- Asia: South Korea moves to block 27 unregistered overseas exchanges (incl. KuCoin, MEXC); Kospi sell-off on AI concerns, while BTC held up. Sberbank received approval to trade crypto.
- Other: UK court ruling strengthens the government's case to keep ~$5B of seized bitcoin; a dormant 2020-era whale moved ~$378M of BTC; FSB G20 meeting 15 Oct.

5. Summary and prediction

BTC has rebuilt from Monday's $81k flush to ~$83.6k, with leverage cleaned out (OI down ~$1.7B, funding flat) but ETF demand weak and US 10-year yields above 5.3%. Options point to a pin around $83k into Friday, a firm but fragile floor at $80k, and little call supply until $85k+. Everything hinges on Wednesday's 8:30pm MYT CPI: implied vol (~32%) looks low for the risk, so expect quiet chop until the print and a fast move after it. 24h call: range $82,000-$84,500 into CPI, then a break in the direction of the core print; slight downside skew given yields and ETF outflows.

Scenario	Chance	Range	Trigger
Base: pinned chop	50%	$82,000 - $84,500	Core CPI in line (0.2-0.3% m/m); max pain $83k pull holds
Bullish: relief break	22%	$84,500 - $86,800	Core 0.2% or lower, yields dip; hourly close above $84,500
Bearish: hot CPI	28%	$79,500 - $82,000	Core 0.3%+ revives Oct hike odds; loss of $81,000 then $80k put wall

- Bull signal: hourly close above $84,500 (ETF cost basis) with rising spot volume and positive ETF flows.
- Bear signal: hourly close below $81,000; a break of $80,000 likely accelerates via dealer hedging toward $78,000.
