Tuesday 27 Oct 2026, 15:58 Malaysia time (07:58 UTC)

CoinGlass/Bybit/Cointelegraph: 24h -0.7% to flat, 7d -2.6%

Quick view	Bias: Neutral to slightly bearish, pinned near $80k before the Fed	Next 24h: $79,000 - $81,000 (base case)	Key floor: $79,300 (Oct 26 low), then $78,000 max pain	Big event: Fed decision Thu 29 Oct 02:00 MYT; $10.8B expiry Fri 16:00

1. Options - next 24 hours and upcoming expiries

- Today's daily expiry settles at 16:00 MYT (minutes after this report). The next one is Wed 28 Oct 16:00 MYT. It settles about 10 hours before the Fed decision, so it will not pin price through the Fed.
- Daily expiries are small next to Friday's. Strike-level data for 28 Oct could not be read this run; treat it as low impact.
- The expiry that matters is Fri 30 Oct 16:00 MYT. It is both the weekly and the October monthly: about 135,545 BTC (~$10.8B), put/call 0.55, max pain $78,000.

Expiry	Largest position seen	Size	Meaning
28 Oct 16:00 (daily)	Not readable this run	n/a	Small daily. Price is likely to drift with spot flows rather than to a strike.
30 Oct 16:00 (weekly + monthly)	$95,000 Call	19,951 BTC (~$1.60B)	Far out of the money (+19%). Likely to expire worthless and caps nothing nearby.
30 Oct 16:00	$90,000 Call	10,710 BTC (~$0.86B)	Nearest big call wall, still ~12% above spot.
30 Oct 16:00	$70,000 Put	4,352 BTC (~$0.35B)	Largest put, a crash hedge. Puts at $75k-$80k matter more for spot.

How options affect the market now

- Call-heavy book, out of the money: about 87k BTC of calls sit mostly at $90k-$100k, far above spot. These calls have little delta, so dealers have little to hedge near $80k. Price has no strong call-wall magnet nearby.
- Pull toward max pain: max pain is $78,000, about 2.5% below spot. Into Friday, the strikes that pay out least sit just below price, so drift risk leans slightly lower if spot stays heavy.
- Put/call 0.55: positioning is still bullish on paper, but those bets are losing value. If the $90k+ calls are closed or rolled as expiry nears, the selling adds mild pressure.
- Volatility: the latest reading found was implied vol of ~34% for the 30 Oct expiry, with DVOL near 2-year lows (CoinMarketCap, about a week old). That implies roughly a 1.8% (~$1,400) daily move. Low IV before a Fed and PCE week means a surprise can move price more than it is priced.

- After Friday: about 35-38% of Deribit BTC open interest rolls off. Hedging flows reset, and moves in early November often become freer and more directional.
- Next-24h expiry: too small to matter. Spot flows and Fed positioning dominate until Thursday.

Data note: the live Deribit API and CoinDesk pages could not be fetched this run. Options figures are the latest published counts (CryptoTicker, 27 Oct 06:26 UTC; earlier trackers ranged $10.7B-$12.2B, P/C 0.40-0.56, max pain $76k-$79k). Treat strike sizes as 'largest seen'. The 28 Oct daily and 6 Nov weekly details are unavailable.

2. Price action and key levels

- BTC is holding at about $79,950-$80,150 (CoinGlass $79,945, -0.73% 24h; Bybit $80,143). The 24h range is a tight $79,332-$80,680.
- Six straight lower daily closes from $84,082 to ~$80,029 (CryptoTicker). The trend is down, but selling has slowed since the weekend low of $79,146.
- Price sits below the ~$81,700 50-day average and the ~$81,700 average spot-ETF cost basis, so rallies meet supply from holders at break-even.
- Expected daily move at ~34% implied vol is about $1,400. The last 24h range (~$1,350) was right on that pace.

Type	Level	Why it matters
Resistance 2	$85,000 - $87,500	Top of the two-week range; 6-12 month holder cost ~$86,700; ask clusters

Support	$79,150 - $79,350	Weekend low ($79,146) and Oct 26 low ($79,332)
Support 2	$78,000	Oct 30 max pain; analyst support
Deep risk	$75,000 - $77,600	True Market Mean ~$77,600; $75k put strike; daily close under $79k targets $75k

3. Derivatives, flows and sentiment

Metric	Latest	Read
Futures open interest	$54.0B (CoinGlass, 27 Oct)	High. Leverage remains in the system, so stop runs can be sharp.
Funding rate	Not available (CoinGlass did not load)	Not readable this run
Liquidations 24h	~$55.6M BTC (CoinGlass); $810M crypto-wide on 25 Oct (85% longs)	The weekend flush cleared longs; the last 24h has been quiet.
Spot BTC ETF flows	+$110M (26 Oct); -$635.6M (22 Oct), -$137.9M (23 Oct); Oct MTD ~-$202M	Monday's inflow is modestly positive, but October is still net outflow.
Fear & Greed	48 Neutral (from 50)	No extreme in either direction
Exchange inflows	19,800 BTC in 24h (Mudrex)	Elevated deposits are a mild supply risk.
Options IV	~34% (Oct 30 expiry); DVOL near 2-year lows	Cheap volatility before macro events

4. News and macro

- Fed (27-28 Oct): the market prices an ~88-91% chance of a hold at 3.75-4.00% after September's 25bp hike. Prediction markets put a December hike near 73%. Chair Warsh's press conference (02:30 MYT Thu) is the main risk. A hawkish tone on December is the bearish trigger.
- ETF flows: spot BTC ETFs took in +$110M on Monday after $774M left over the previous two sessions. October is still about -$202M net (SoSoValue/Cointelegraph).
- Strategy reportedly skipped BTC purchases this week and spent $205M on STRC preferred buybacks, removing a steady bid.
- Macro: oil is above $110 as mediators work to reopen the Strait of Hormuz. US stocks rose Monday (S&P +0.70%, Nasdaq +0.83%). The US 10-year yield is near 4.97%.
- Regulation: the OCC approved Ripple National Trust Bank; California's DFPI opposed the SEC's proposed crypto framework; Canada published a draft stablecoin framework (consultation to 23 Dec).
- Security: hardware wallet maker Keystone disclosed a customer data breach (no keys exposed) and warned users about phishing.

5. Summary and prediction

Bitcoin is stuck just under $80k in a tight, low-volatility range. Traders are waiting on the Fed early Thursday Malaysia time, then PCE/GDP, then Friday's $10.8B monthly expiry. Options positioning is call-heavy but far out of the money, so it provides little nearby support or resistance. Max pain at $78k adds a mild downward pull into Friday. Flows are mixed: Monday's ETF inflow is positive, but October is still net outflow, Strategy paused buying, and exchange inflows are elevated. The next 24 hours end before the Fed, so range trading is the most likely path. 24h call: range $79,000-$81,000 with a slight downside lean. A clean loss of $79,300 opens $78,000.

Scenario	Chance	Range	Trigger
Base: pre-Fed chop	55%	$79,000 - $81,000	Low volume before the Fed; small daily expiry; flat ETF flows
Bullish	20%	$80,700 - $82,300	Hourly close above $80,700 with ETF inflows / short squeeze toward the $81.7k 50-day average
Bearish	25%	$77,800 - $79,300	Break of $79,300 weekend lows; long stops; drift toward $78k max pain

- Upside signal: an hourly close above $80,700, then a daily close above $81,700 (50-day average and ETF cost basis).
- Downside signal: a 4h close below $79,300. A daily close under $79,000 shifts focus to $78k, then $75k.
- Next report: 23:50 MYT (Tue 27 Oct)
